

Mrs. Laurence Phillips, formerly Miss Marion Henriette Perry, daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. Ernest Fahnestock, is a recent bride.

Photo by Davis & Sanford.

Miss Sally H. Dunlop, a daughter of Mrs. Archibald McCrea, is the bride of Capt. Joseph D. Eddy, who was on Gen. O'Ryan's staff.

Photo copyright White Studio.

The bride of Capt. Henry Dunstan Chaplin. She was Miss Elsa Sondern, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederic E. Sondern. At left, in oval—Mrs. Morton F. Plant, who recently became the wife of Col. William Hayward, commander of the Fifteenth Infantry, the famous negro regiment. She has been active in Red Cross work, and the photograph shows her in the uniform of that organization.

Photo copyright Red Cross.

Prince Aage of Denmark is in this country as a visitor. He has been much entertained at private functions since he has come unofficially.

Photo by de Stebbels.

Mrs. Selden Day Burchenal, who was formerly Miss Amy Claire Sutton, is another army bride, her husband being a Captain. Photo by W. Hurdin Stone.

Mrs. Tracy Samuel Lewis, formerly Miss Grace Garland Meacham of Brooklyn, was married on June 14, at her summer home, Wolfboro, N. H. The honeymoon was spent on Mr. Lewis's yacht.

New York city took great pleasure in honoring Dr. Epitacio Pessoa, President-elect of Brazil. Here he is seen on the steps of City Hall, where he was received by Mayor Hylan. In the front row, from the left, are Rodman Wanamaker, Miss Pessoa, Mme. Pessoa, the Mayor and Dr. Pessoa. While here the visitor was attended by a naval and military escort.

Photo by Sun Staff Photographer.